to all present indications its success will top the expectations of Dictator J. A. George, Secretary Frank B. Hazard and their corps of assistants.

After weeks of preparation the committee in charge of the affair committee in charge of the affair committee the final arrangements in time to take places in the street parade that preceded the formal opening at the carnival grounds. The parade lined up in front of the Moose home on Laurel Hill avenue at 7.20 o'clock and, headed by the Krauss military band marched over Laurel Hill bridge into Hopkins & Allen company will give them about 30,000 square feet of floor them about 30,000 squars feet of floor space. It has three stories above the basement, which is on the level of the Central Vermont car tracks.

With the Rogers shop, the Hopkins & Allen company now has three buildings in the city where its business on the war contract will be carried on, as the Gordon building on Chestnut street has been leased also.

The bulk of the machinery for the new buildings is expected to arrive during August, but a staff of draughtsmen are now at work in the Springmarched over Laurel Hill bridge into Shetucket street, through Water street to Main street and Washington square where they countermarched through Main street, Franklin square, East Main street and on to the carnival grounds, where they disbanded. Occupying a prominent place at the head of the line were His Honor, Mayor Murphy, City Clerk Arthur G. Crowell, and Dictator Joseph A. George, seated in the Maxwell touring car that is to given away at the close of the car-nival. The car was driven by H. F. McCurdy of New London, and was gaily decorated. Just ahead of the Maxwell was George H. Westerman, general manager of the carnival com-nany, who was sested in the car ownpany, who was seated in the car own-ed and driven by L. M. Crandall. In line were about 350 Moose, and nearly a hundred visiting brothers.

Opening Ceremonies. Upon arrival at the carnival grounds Upon arrival at the carnival grounds the Moose formed two lines, through which the mayor's car was driven and as he passed the Moose bared their heads and greeted him with three rousing cheers. Mr. Westerman took the stand and in introducing the mayor, spoke as follows:

A. George, dictator of the Loyal Order of Moose, to ntroduce to you this evening a gentle man whom you all know, to formally open this carnival, a man who is held in the highest esteem by his fellowmen, a gentleman who has done more both directly and indirectly for the city of Norwich than any previous mayor, and that gentleman is the Honorable Timothy C. Murphy, mayor of Norwich. In his characteristic manner the mayor started the ball rolling with the following brief address: Ladies and Gentlemen: It is a great pleasure for me tonight to open up this Moose carnival. In opening up this carnival it is one of the great many good things that this organization, whose business is to promote purity, aid and progress, has done for the city of Norwich. I would say to the Krause shows, I wish them a hearty welcome to our city, and I hope their stay here will be a big success, also to the Moose carnival.

At the conclusion of the mayor's welcome there was a general stiramong the large crowd in the direction of the various show tents, the merry-go-round, ferris wheel and motordown and the carnival was run. tordrome and the carnival was run-ning in full force.

is billed Ish Ka Bibble, and true to its reputation is a sure cure for the blues. The monstrous ferris wheel was on the turn all evening and so was the merry-go-round. The human art gal-lery was another attraction that came n for a good deal of attraction. Here were seen the fat lady, weighing near ly 700 pounds, the midget, who i quipped with a duplicate set of mus cles and joints, the Egyptian fortune teller, the young spike breaker, who bends, twists and breaks spikes with his hands and teeth in the most ama-ing manner, and the tattoed wonder who has a variety of pictures on his body. Still another of the freak at-tractions is the trio, father and two children, who exhibit chicken hands and claw feet.

Oberita drew special attention, This ls really a beautiful art production and is directed by C. E. Roussey. A mysterious trip full of apprehensions was that to Tipperary, while the animal circus attracted many people. The trained animals are among the best seen in Norwich for some time. REID & HUGHES

To Have Pretty Hair

If your hair is not as soft, and pretty, or as fresh and full as that of some friend, do as she does—give it daily attention, just the same care you would give a plant to make it grow healthy and beautiful. Lux-uriant hair-soft, fluffy, thick and uriant hair—soft, fluffy, thick and lustrous— is really a matter of care. If it is too thin, stimulate the hair roots and bring out the new hair. If it is too dry and brittle, soften it up—lubricate it. If you have dandruff it's because the scalp is too dry and flakes off. Freshen up the scalp and all dandruff disappears.

An inexpensive tonic, called Paris-

An inexpensive tonic, called Parisan Sage, which you can get from Lee & Osgood, or any drug counter, is just what you need—it softens the scalp, nourishes and invigorates the hair roots, immediately removes all dandruff and makes the hair fuffy lustrous and abundant. One fluffy, lustrous and abundant. One application will stop itching head and cleanse the hair of dust and excess oil. Parisian Sage takes away the dryness and brittleness, makes the hair seem twice as abundant and beautifies it until it is soft and lustrous.

By the use of this helpful tonic any woman can easily have beautiful hair; and pretty hair will surely increase charm and beauty.

OPPOSING APPLICATION OF CHARLES BECKER. Brief Was Submitted by District Attorney Perkins Yesterday. New York, June 14 .- A brief opposing he application of Charles Becker, the former New York police lieutenant, under sentence of death for instigating the murder of Herman Rosenthal, the gambler, for a re-argument of his case before the court of appeals, was submitted by District Attorney Perkins today. He asserted "that this case received every possible consideration from the court, that nothing was overpoked or misapprehended, and there is no reason for granting a re-argu-ment," A decision is expected next Becker has been sentenced to die in the electric chair at Sing Sing prison during the week of July 12.
